

Survivor Seeks Help from one of the SAFENET Providers:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Medical Services (NRH/HC/ANC Seif Ples) Shelter (CCC/Seif Ples) Police 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Integrated Mental Health Social Welfare Division Family Support Center Legal (PSO) SIPPA

SAFENET Response and Referral Pathway

Immediate Response Action used by all SAFENET Entry Points
Private Room to talk Safe/Caring environment	Informed Consent	First-line crisis support Psychological First Aid	Medical First Aid and if less than 3 to 5 days since rape incident, access Essential Medicine quickly	Mandatory 3 Risk Assessment Questions Yes Response Flags High Risk Case And Mandatory Safety Planning	Offering Referral Options: 1. Case Management (for further assessment and support) or 2. Direct Referral to SAFENET Partners for service  Fill out SAFENET Referral Form

SAFENET: Case Management Services
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Case Manager comes to the survivor at the SAFENET entry point to offer services and support Case Manager completes a needs assessment and develops an Action Plan with the survivor Case Manager provides accompaniment and support until survivor’s goals are met.

SAFENET Partner Services
Medical Services	Mental Health	Shelter	Welfare / Child Protection	Counseling	Legal & Para-Legal Information	Police
If the survivor <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Has physical injuries or Has been sexually assaulted or raped Rape is a medical emergency. It is best to get all medicines within 3 days of the rape.	- If the survivor appears to be a danger to him/her self or others (e.g. suicidal or violent) - If you suspect that the client has a mental disorder. - If the client remains disoriented or unresponsive after PFA has been given.	- If the client is too afraid to return to their home. - If the perpetrator is waiting for the survivor and she is afraid to leave. - If the survivor reports that the perpetrator is continuing to threaten to harm her or others.	- If you are a health care worker and suspect that a child has been abused, the Family Protection Act (FPA) requires that you make a report. - If a child has been abused and it is unclear if the caregiver can keep the child safe.	- If the survivor requests counseling or emotional support - If the survivor continues to be overwhelmed after receiving basic first-line support/PFA - If the survivor is a child or disabled person and the guardian/parent does not appear supportive. - If the survivor is not functioning in their daily tasks or routine.	- If the survivor needs Information about legal options - If the survivor needs legal assistance with <ul style="list-style-type: none"> maintenance, divorce, custody 	If the survivor needs <ul style="list-style-type: none"> immediate protection help to return to her home to collect personal items Police Safety Notice
1. National Referral Hospital Emergency Department 2. Health Centers: Gender Focal Points 3. Seif Ples – 24677 4. SIPPA Clinic - 23954 SAFENET Toll Free Line - 132	1. Integrated Mental Health at NRH 20690/20688 2. In Provinces -Mental Health Focal Point SAFENET Toll Free Line - 132	1. Seif Ples Model Sites - 24677 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Short stay:1-3 day 2. Christian Care Center- 36319 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 1-2 weeks SAFENET Toll Free Line - 132	Social Welfare Division (SWD) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Child Abuse Reporting Child Protection Services 20569/20686 SAFENET Toll Free Line - 132	1. Family Support Center – 20619/26999 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Empowerment Counseling Therapeutic Counseling: 2. Integrated Mental Health - 20690 3. Pastoral/spiritual counseling at Christian Care Center or various churches - 36319	1. Public Solicitor’s Office - 28406/ 22348 2. Family Support Center – 20619/26999 3. Authorized Justices	Police <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 24 hour 999 Central Police 22999 Henderson 36200 Family Violence Unit 20023 Sexual Assault Unit - 21226 W/River – 21363 Naha – 39647 Kukum - 22336

In provinces see local referral pathway, where available, for services